Certificate of Professional Competence (Transport Management)

Course Information Sheet

The Transport Management Certificate of Professional Competence in Road Haulage is offered on behalf of the Department for Transport and is administered through OCR in relation to the current EU Directive. This incorporates both National and International legislation.

The course is suitable for any candidates wishing to enter the profession of Road Haulage Transport Management or to demonstrate competence in meeting the Operator Licensing requirements. The requirement for a CPC is contained within the Goods Vehicle (Licensing of Operators) Act 1995 and it is these regulations that implement the EU Directive 74/561.

Anybody looking to sit and obtain the Certificate of Professional Competence must be:

- Professionally competent (Pass the CPC examinations)
- Of good repute
- Of appropriate financial standing

The examinations are structured as follows:

Unit R1- 60 multiple choice questions with a 70% pass mark (2 hour examination)

Unit R2- Case Study open book examination, 5-8 questions with a 50% pass mark (2 hours 15 mins)

Examinations take place 4 times per year in March, June, September and December. All examination entries must be registered with OCR 4 weeks prior to the examination date through your training provider.
